Sarah Sanderson started in the real estate in 2010 as an assistant to a highly successful Real Estate Agent, being exposed to all aspects of real estate and marketing. She immediately fell in love with the industry and decided to make a name for herself by obtaining her real estate license and becoming sales associate. Once licensed, Sarah became an integral part of a highly-successful real estate team, both as a Buyer's agent and assistant/transaction coordinator. After having kids, Sarah worked as Lead Administrator for a busy Commercial real estate team before deciding to become a full-time Residential Transaction Coordinator.

In her down time, Sarah enjoys spending time with her family, creating arts & crafts projects for her kids and baking. She also enjoys outdoor activities from hiking to off-roading as well as boating and camping. Sarah recently acquired a travel trailer and is looking forward to "glamping" with her family during the winter months as well.

Sarah brings her expertise and attention to detail to our Keller Williams Realty Transaction Coordinating Team and is ready to accept new agents.
