

Stacy is a bay area native with over 20 years of experience in the real estate industry. She received a B.A. in Mass Communication and began a career in sales and marketing. After purchasing her first home, she discovered a passion for real estate and obtained her real estate license in 2003 and a professional real estate assistant certification in 2006. Stacy has experience in loan processing, new home sales, residential sales, transaction coordination and worked as an assistant for a top agent here at Keller William for many years.

Stacy understands first-hand the many aspects involved in a real estate transaction. She is detail oriented, highly organized, has a strong work ethic and driven by a desire to provide excellent customer service.

Outside of real estate, Stacy enjoys reading, watching her kids play sports and spending time at Lake Berryessa with family and friends.
