

Shannan Laufasa

Shannan began her real estate journey as an administrator before transitioning into her current role as a Transaction Coordinator – a position she has truly loved for the past nine years. With a passion for organization and an eye for detail, Shannan thrives on managing the many moving parts that make each transaction unique. She understands the critical role that clear, consistent communication plays in every successful deal. Her goal is to make her agent's job easier by serving as a dependable, behind-the-scenes logistical partner. Shannan is committed to turning what could feel like a transactional process into a smooth, positive experience for everyone involved. She takes great pride in seeing each transaction through to a successful close and is deeply invested in her agents' success.

Outside of real estate, Shannan's true devotion is to her family. She has been happily married to her husband for 23 years, and together they have four amazing children. A big football fan and gym enthusiast, Shannan’s idea of a perfect day is a cozy Sunday at home with her family, spending quality time together and watching football all day.

Shannan has the experience and attention to detail to make your job easier and is ready to work with you.
